Terminal Disclaimer

The terminal disclaimer filed on 08/28/06 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of any patent granted on application #6403429 and #6300204, has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art teaches forming a conductive line laterally spaced from the semiconductive material and diffusion region. However, the prior art fails to teach, either in combination or alone, interconnecting the conductive line and the diffusion region with electrically conductive material with the entire conductive material being above the semiconductive material and wherein the entire conductive line is laterally spaced from the semiconductive material.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Claims #5 through 9, #40 through 53, #55 through 57 and #59 through 61 are allowed.

Claim #5

- Interconnecting the conductive line and the diffusion region with electrically conductive material, an entirety of the conductive material being above the semiconductive material; and wherein an entirety of the conductive line is laterally spaced from the semiconductive material.

Claim #40

- Wherein the conductive node comprises an uppermost surface, and wherein the conductive line comprises an uppermost surface, which is coplanar with the uppermost surface of the conductive node.
